

Claire Harvey's Tsunami Prophecies and Reflections

Saturday, April 9, 2005 Teen Retreat at Mount Palomar, San Diego, CA

First Tsunami Prophecy - "A new wave of the Holy Spirit is upon us in this springtime of the new millennium. I had a word picture of this new wave of the Spirit, and it is no ordinary wave, it is a tsunami. If you have ever been caught up in a big wave in the ocean, you know the feeling of the churning power of that wave. You are definitely not in control. In this wave of the Holy Spirit, two things are happening – a renewal and revitalization of all the gifts and graces of our Baptism, and a stripping away of all that clings to us that limits or impedes our walk in the Spirit. The devastating tsunami that recently occurred brought death, but the new wave of the living waters of the Holy Spirit brings abundant life, new growth, and is the impetus of the New Evangelism in the Church and the world of which Pope John Paul spoke. In the surge of this new life-giving wave of the Holy Spirit the Lord says to us, 'I, Yahweh, am your God, you have only to open your mouth for me to fill it.'" (Psalm 81:10)

Convocation February 20, 2006

Reflection - I want to share personally something the Lord recalled to me as we were hearing Fr. Francis Martin. In spring of 1969 before I was given the above word, I was a Catholic very satisfied with my faith. It was the Feast of the Annunciation 1969, and I went to see my pastor because the Lord had read me to read the book by St. Louis de Montfort about consecration to the Blessed Mother. I didn't have a particular devotion to the Blessed Mother and just was wondering about it. The pastor led me from the rectory into the Church in front of the Blessed Sacrament; he handed me a candle – lit it, and consecrated me to the Blessed Mother. I was overwhelmed and couldn't believe it, because I had just come in to ask about it! In September of 1969, it didn't take the Blessed Mother long to lead me to the Charismatic Renewal and the fullness of the heart of Jesus. I think there is something in this type of consecration that the Lord is calling us to. In looking at the icon for this year's Convocation, I think that is where we are in the New Springtime – gathered with the apostles, all the saints before us and the Blessed Mother, and that should be the prayer of our hearts: Be it done unto us according to Thy word.

A tsunami wave breaks new ground. If we surrender anew to the action of the Holy Spirit in this New Springtime, just as we did when we received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, the Spirit will move in us in new ways and take us to new places. I believe the Holy Spirit wants to work in new ways – not only in us as individuals – but also in the Church and in the world. And God is in a hurry, a holy haste – to empower and revitalize us for the work that he calls us to in the New Evangelization. God is asking for a response on our part. He gave me Psalm 81: "You have only to open your mouth, and I will fill it."

I have been praying about how we do that. I think the Lord has told me that we have to give the Lord permission to empty us, and to fill us with a double portion of the Holy Spirit. I've asked the Lord what it is he's asking us to do. So often we look to prophecy to guide us – but I think most often, prophecy tells us what God is doing and asks us to respond to that, and be something that we haven't been before. So I would ask all of us to ask God – to empty us, to fill us, to make us to be something we haven't been before, and to give God permission to do that.

I think God is asking us for only two things as City of the Lord. He is asking us, "Little children – love one another." And then He is asking us, "Be a people of prayer." Mary has chosen the better part, and it shall not be taken from her. That is our call – to sit at the feet of the Lord, to listen to him and beg Him to fill us and to love one another.

GLA November 2006

Sharing of Words from 1970 through the years that summarize the call we have as City of the Lord.

"For you my people are on the threshold of a new springtime, and for this do I winnow and thresh you, for this do I bind up your wounds that I might heal you."

"I have called you out of the country that you have always known, to enter into a pilgrimage to lead my people out of bondage. There will be none of the landmarks that you hitherto have known, so you must walk in faith, trusting the light you have been given."

*"The fields are indeed white for the harvest and I pass on to you my holy people that ministry that has been given to me by My Father.
For the Spirit of the Lord has anointed me,
He has sent me to preach good news to the poor,
To bind up hearts that is broken,
To set the captives free,
The lame walk, the blind see,
A year of favor from the Lord is announced.
Accept my peace. Accept my peace for it is my gift to you.
Do not let your hearts be troubled for I would heal the discord within you so that you may minister to the discord without."*

"Will you lay down your life for your brother? Nothing less than this I ask of you, for I would have you place everything upon the altar, so that I may fill your very emptiness with my healing love, for many languish, many perish for the lack of My healing love which I would channel through you."

"I would build a City on the mountain filled with my light and my love to which my people may come to be strengthened, to be healed and to be relived of the burdens under which they bend, but when will you let my light shine upon you so that I may relieve you of your burdens."

"I tell you my people that true worship is a call answered, a life laid down and a love lived. And this shall become as Living Waters welling up from the Well of Salvation within us. All else is but a gong booming and cymbals clashing."

"Remember Lot's wife. Asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of God was to come, he gave them this answer: 'The Kingdom of God does not admit of observation and there will be no one to say "Look here! Look there!" For you must know, the Kingdom of God is among you.' (Luke 17, 20-21)

"As it was in Noah's day, so will it also be in the days of the Son of Man. People were eating and drinking, marrying wives and husbands, right up to the day Noah went into the ark, and the Flood came and destroyed them all. It will be the same as it was in Lot's day: people were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building, but the day Lot left Sodom, God rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. It will be the same when the day comes for the Son of Man to be revealed....Remember Lot's wife. Anyone who tries to preserve his life will lose it; and anyone who loses it will keep it safe." (Luke 17, 26-33)

"In one of the Words shared this weekend, we were told that City of the Lord is in a critical junction, and we were called to "Let Go": To be radical in our response to God. "My sense is that the City of the Lord is being called to be as the Ark in the day of Noah and the safe haven of Lot's call and we are to respond as they did - to go on and to not look back. I believe that Lot's wife not only glanced back but had already turned back and was on her way back to Sodom, and the Lord is warning us to respond in faith and trust to the call to move on and not cling to what we have known.

We are like the young rich man who approached Jesus to ask what more was required, for he already felt he had done everything. Many times I approach the Lord in the same way. And the young man went away sad, for he was very rich. And we are also very rich. Jesus said that it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God. And the apostles were astounded and said: then who can be saved? Jesus replied that for man it is impossible, but that all things are possible for God.

I believe that Lord is asking us to beg Him at this time of the great tsunami outpouring of the grace of the Holy Spirit to be able to Let Go, and to move on with Him according to His Call to all of us.

Convocation February 2008

Second Tsunami Prophecy - My people, I speak to you of a mighty wave of my Holy Spirit.

I tell you that I call you my Friends, for I speak to you of my plans and all that is to be.

I have spoken to you of the Tsunami wave of My Spirit, and I tell you that it has begun.

Boundaries that have long stood will be no more -- perimeters will now be vast.

My Ardor breaks forth and will not be restrained, for so many of my children wander lost in sin and darkness.

I tell you that my Word will Thunder to those who have been deaf to my call and to my work of salvation in their lives.

I have called you together as a People called by my name, City of the Lord, and it is as a People that you must answer this call.

I have lifted you up, healed you, forgiven you, poured out my gifts upon you, and made you vessels of my love and mercy and healing to a world that is lost in darkness.

I call you to cherish your relationships, your unity and the love you have for one another, for this is my most precious gift to you, and the source of your holiness and your strength.

So I tell you City of the Lord, do not be fainthearted.

The new wave of my Spirit is not for the fainthearted, it is not navigable, so do not try to control it. Allow yourselves to be inundated with the new power and new gifts of My Holy Spirit.

I tell you that the old gifts and the old ways are not enough. Beg me for new gifts that I long to pour out upon you new and more powerful than in the past. Do not cling to the old; endure the emptiness so that I might make all things new within you.

I call you my people to labor with me, to lay down your lives so that my work of salvation will be accomplished in your midst.

Convocation February 2009

Third Tsunami Prophecy - I have called you together this weekend My people to celebrate your life together as City of the Lord. I have called you together so that you may echo the word of salvation: Be It Done Unto Me According to Thy Word. In your assent of supplication, My Word is accomplished within you – my gifts given, my Word fulfilled in your midst.

I have called you together that you might rejoice heartily in my work in you, my People, in that great hymn of Joy: "My Soul magnifies the Lord and My Spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for He that is mighty has done great things in me and Holy is His Name!" (Luke 1, 46-49)

As I healed Paul my servant from his blindness, I touch your eyes so that the scales may fall from them and you will have My Vision of who you are as my People. You are holy, my people, not for what you do or hope to do, but because I am Holy and I dwell within you and I am in your midst. Go out now at My command in boldness and confidence, in fear and trembling. Do not wait for a vision of who you are or who you are to be. You are NOW vessels of My healing and My strength and My love because I have empowered you with the gifts and graces that I pour out upon you and through you. I tell you NOW who you are because I have formed you and empowered you and send you forth in my name.--

I touch your ears that you may hear the cry of the poor, of my little ones. I will again give the Living Waters of My Spirit to the Woman at the well. I, in you, will raise up those who are paralyzed and helpless and waiting at the Pools of Bethesda. I, in you, will again raise up to new life my sons and daughters who lie dead in sin and darkness, as I did for the widow grieving at the bier of her lifeless son.

I tell you that I call a people humble and contrite, eager and expectant, confident and unafraid. The enemy of my work within you is arrogance and pride and if you have not been knocked off your horse like my servant Paul by the circumstances of your lives, hold on tight. The work of the Tsunami of my Holy Spirit will be done with you or without you.
